WORSE CASES OF NARCISSISM

COLLECTIVE WORK OF LOLCOW JOURNALIST

A PIECE OF WORD TO EVERYONE

This is a collective work of LIA (Lolcow Intelligence Agency). And wpu collective (Wignats Pedophiles Unmasked). The goal of this particular document is to once and for all expose a woman who goes by the name of Deja Red (Real name Alisha Rose Wiener) who makes the most heinous, morbid, or most absurd accusations of all time. She is one of the worst cases of narcissism as she subvert "National Socialism" in her own image. Accusing people of the most vile things for the smallest disagreements or personal hate. It is about time everyone gets to know who she is before ever taking her any seriously.

In here we will perfectly encapsulate Deja Red's story of her personal life, career, and most importantly her downfall.

I wouldn't really say downfall. Because the last I checked she still is falling. Just harder day after day.

"In the digital wilderness, independent journalists are the intrepid explorers, shining a light on the most colorful and outlandish characters of our time - the self-proclaimed emperors with no clothes, the internet's court jesters, and the viral sensations that leave us scratching our heads. Their reports are the field guides to humanity's endless capacity for absurdity."

ALISHA'S PERSONAL LIFE AND CAREER

Alisha Rose Shaffer, 45, resides in Las Vegas, Nevada. Born in January 1978, she works as a driver for Uber. Previously, she held positions such as senior sales representative at Club Pilates, senior district sales manager at Hessler Worldwide, and personal assistant/receptionist at the Law Office of Paul Casaudoumecq. Alisha holds a Bachelor of Arts in Philosophy from the University of Sydney and has completed studies in General Studies at Orange Coast College, Psychology at Vanguard University of Southern California (2000-2002), and General Studies at College of Southern Nevada (1998-2000).

Alica runs a failed dating platform for “White nationalists” called “The Aryan Dating”.

She subsequently claimed to be a “National Socialist”. She claims she is Catholic. But neither could we ever confirm anything as first of all. She has never done any actual activism in real life.

She harbors pedophiles and satanist in her 50 members network (Posting gore, porn, etc) but doing nothing about it.

It is likely that Alisha suffers from schizophrenia or some other psychotic disorder.

Her behavior is random and seemingly unpredictable and she will often go off on random people and ban them from her chats with little to no reason. One example being. There was an incident where Alisha was sperging about her enemies over and over. She is reckless and destructive. But there was one person that particularly said “Don’t you think it’s better to use rationalism than feelings?” Oh boy Alisha just suddenly went all out malding at him. Saying stuff that “People should appreciate her for even talking to her” or the “Lessons she is giving out to people”.

Keep in mind these thoughts are only under the perception of Alisha. In reality she’s nothing but a walking narcissist who sucks the life out of anyone.

Alisha is willing to work with anyone who validates her ego, working with known pedos such as Heinrich, Alexander Gasparyan, and Hydra. not only that but Alisha allows Satanists free roam in her GC and sucks up to them despite being a catholic. Alisha views anyone who disagrees whether as, nonwhite, Jewish, FBI agent, arab, pedo or any other slanderous thing she can think of. Alisha will sit in her group chat and type out long-winded paragraphs for hours on end talking to no one. If interrupted she will ban the said person who interrupted her. She then will proceed to go on another long-winded rant about said person being a kike nigger.

But one thing we know for certain is. Alisha Rose Shaffer is suffering from Narcissistic Personality Disorder. She lives in a world of perception where she thinks she is a highly regarded “White nationalist” with high standards/reputation. Or perhaps her successful “Aryan Dating” network consisting of 50 people.

She has an ex boyfriend named Andrew Richardson Laszlo. One particular day, Andrew refused to spend some time with Alisha. Alisha got so mad she ended up doxxing him and slandering him with the worst of things.

LIFE OF A NARCISSIST LOLCOW

"I vividly remember that time when I woke up in the morning, ate my breakfast, and headed to work. But before I did I went to check my phone and saw Alisha on a schizo rant. After work, I took the cab, went home, checked my phone only to see this bitch with 200+ long-ass individual messages. While simultaneously talking to no one but herself."

"If you know who deja is. She calls everyone she hates a "Jew" a "Fed" or even a pedophile. She subverts what national socialism truly stands for and makes up her own versions imposing it to everyone. But her version is just her the most highest of the aryan race. Not even hitler is on her level. She is higher than him."

"This bitch is crazy, she once doxxed her ex-boyfriend because he didn't want to go on a date with her. She will do anything to fuck you up if she doesn't get what she wants from you."

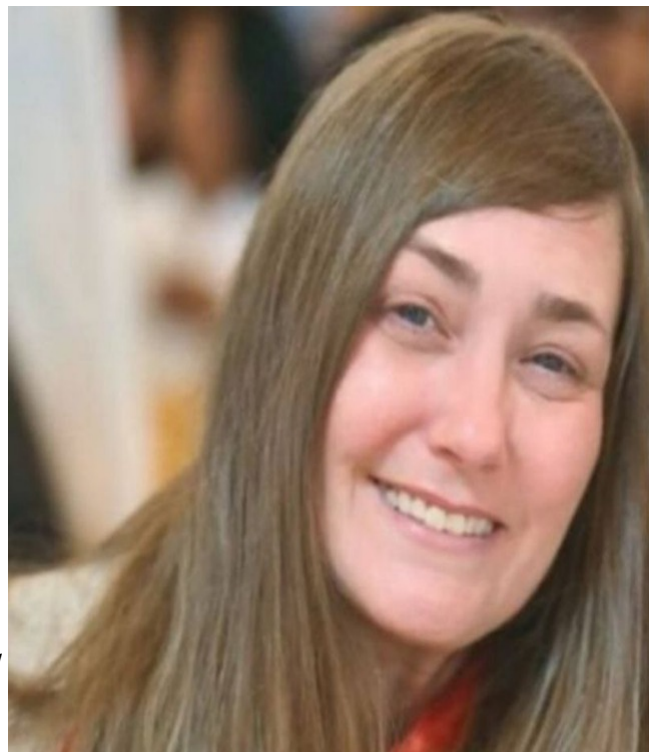

"Déjà is a manipulator, she acts like that when she wants something from you But if you have a different opinion from her. She will shit on you. If you think different from her you are a "jew"."

You need to understand how crazy someone Alisha can be. There was one instance of Alisha doxxing her ex-boyfriend because her ex-boyfriend refused to go out with her. Or one instance of Deja claiming to be a forgiving Catholic turned satanist overnight as she slowly replaced her friends with pedophiles.

She has a tendency to breakdown at the most slightest or most pedantic disagreement. One time there was a person who told her "Do you guys think it is better to think rational than base it on feelings?" Deja suddenly exploded with rage. She wrote down 30+ individual long messages explaining how high she is. How everyone should show some gratefulness for the bountiful of knowledge/privilege of talking to her. She thinks so highly regarded of herself despite achieving little to none in life. She is a walking epidemic of negativity. With a lot of insecurities in life showing pure utmost jealousy leeching at people over the things she do not have. Especially since nobody really loves her.

I mean we kinda love her. She belongs to the lolcow family. History being written. We are the living witnesses as we slowly watch their downfall taking place in 4K.

She is probably the most entitled, narcissistic, psychotic, worse than a Karen skank. The fact that she thinks she's in some top-level organization is believed to be a celebrity when in reality she is nothing but a sick joke.

She often brags about how a Jewish Mafia tried to bribe her for 1 million US Dollars.

She is the founder and the owner of Aryan Dating. A dating website specifically targeted for exclusive whites only.

She has a website called Aryan Date Night where you can find your own matching date. Similar to Tinder. The only problem with this is. They are a bunch of untrustworthy leeches. Their website collects your personal info and threatens to leak them. There was even one instance where they threatened to leak ips of those who visit the website all because she got trolled by some people to the highest order.

Dumb retards think you can get doxxed by ip. Not only have they shown how mentally handicapped they are. But also, they are a pleb bunch of retards.

The Aryan Dating is probably the worst official dating platform ever. It is run by mentally handicapped people like Melissa Gullinellsky (Goes by Racist Raven) or Vinlandian. The Aryan Dating was not even able to find a successful match of one's love. It never functioned its original purpose of a "Dating" platform. But rather, it's a cesspool of toxicity with Deja Red rambling and malding about how life has been so unfair to her. Or obsessing over her enemies. Flooding the community with endless drama.

Alisha uses her friends or allies as tools. Used for her own self-beneficial purposes to please. If you are Alisha's friend. You must do this sets of tasks for her otherwise she will hate you. But regardless of how much you please her. She does not really care about you one way or another. She can rip you off like a band-aid despite the overwhelming effort of good things you have done for her. Just like his ex-boyfriend Andrew Richardson. Or his "Sister" (Very close friend as intended) Melissa Gullinellsky.

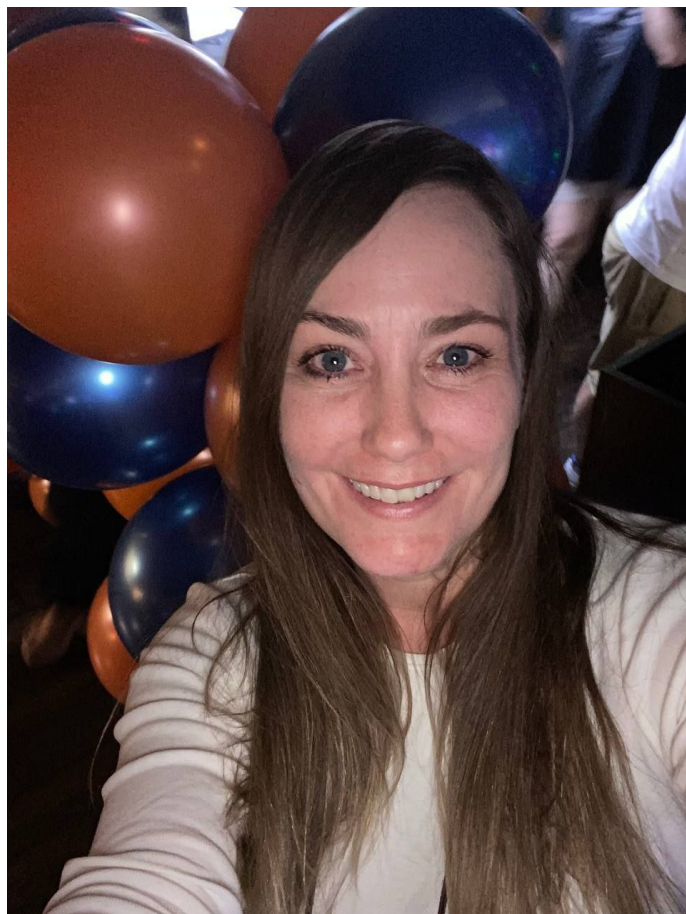

Deja doxxed his ex-boyfriend because he refuses to spend time with her. But rather He was hanging around with a bunch of his friends. Frustrated and driven by anger. She whooped down all personal information she knows about her ex-boyfriend and doxxed him.

This was quote on quote "Done" under the reasoning of "He is a faggot". This is not the actual reason at all. That is just them making things up. The doxxing was driven out of anger for her ex-boyfriend refusing to spend some time with her on one particular day while simultaneously finding out her ex-boyfriend was hanging around with his friends instead of her.

Observing Alisha Rose Wiener's posts on her small social network, "Nigger NatSocs Ink," it becomes evident how obsessive she can be. On her dating platform, "Aryan Dating," you can see her ramping off at other people's success. Often triggering a fiery rage of jealousy as she writes a whole freaking school essay about why she basically deserves so much more.

Under the guise of National Socialism. She has no knowledge whatsoever about what National Socialism really is. Or what is it all about. She's never read Mein Kampf. She doesn't know what white nationalism stands for. She contributed absolutely nothing to National Socialism. It does not even end there. It gets so much worse than that. Her perception of herself is she is even higher than Adolf Hitler himself. Subverting National Socialism in a way that fits her narrative. What is her narrative? Her leeching off of other people and starting problems with everyone. Then uses her friend as a scapegoat for defending.

“Not surprising why she looks like this. Her face says every PTSD combined”

Alexoverum:

"Do you guys consider killing your emotions healthy to gain strength from clean rational thinking?"

“All this because one guy said "Do you guys consider killing your emotions healthy to gain strength from clean rational thinking?"

WHY HAS THE ARYAN DATING NEVER BEEN SUCCESSFUL

You know, the idea of a dating website/platform is close to impossible to even be successful. Let alone a “White exclusive” one under the pretense of white nationalism in the fucking 21st century. That is good as doomed. First of all this is the perfect opportunity for feds or antifas to collect information out of people. An easy pathway to infiltrate people out of their doxxes.

The second thing is. The aryan dating has never been able to function to it's original purpose. It's just Alisha's mouthpiece to rant and use people in to go after her enemies.

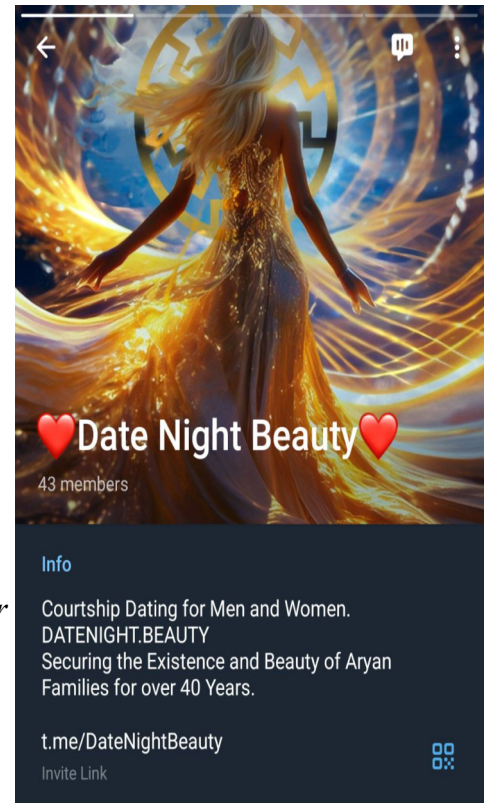

The subtle collapse of Deja Red's e-dating room 'Aryan Dating' / 'DateNightBeauty' formally erupted at the beginning of June when former member Jaylin Huber was exposed as a Jewish child predator who sent graphic nudes to a minor. The one who happened to get Jaylin to delete her account of guilt was Alexander Gasparyan or Tier, another child predator all together. This is when Deja (Alisha Rose Shaffer) began showing respect for Tier, despite his many atrocities.

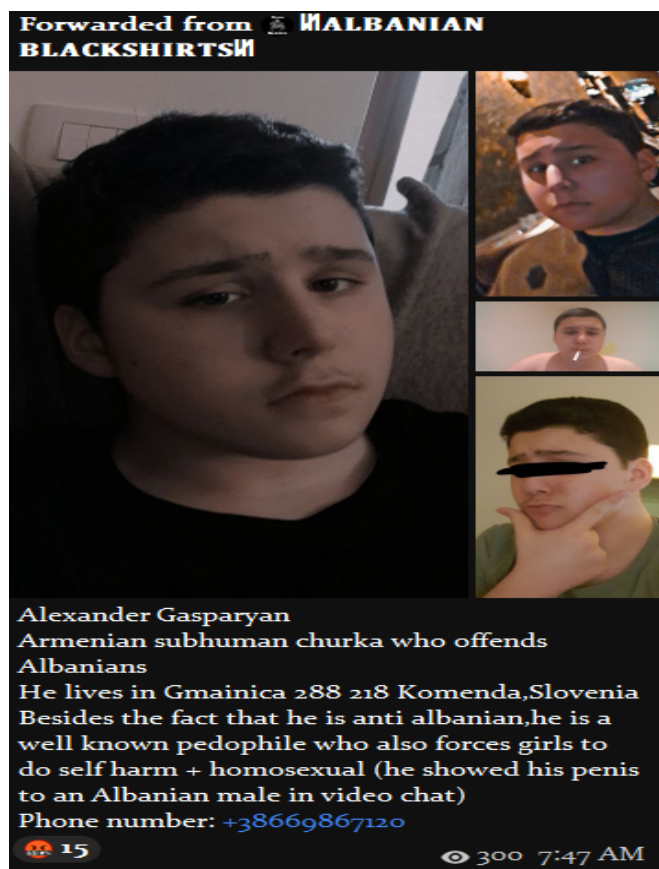

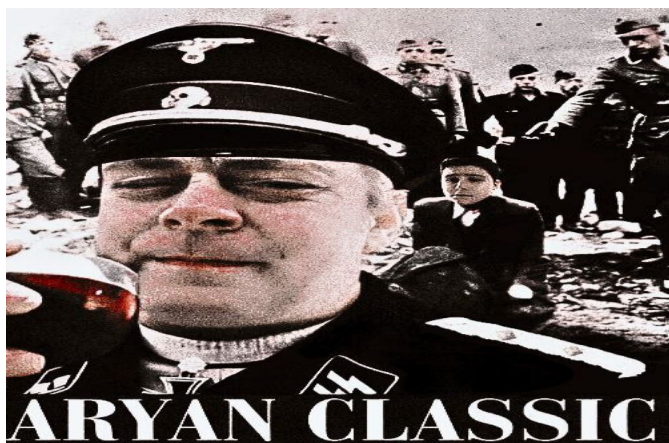

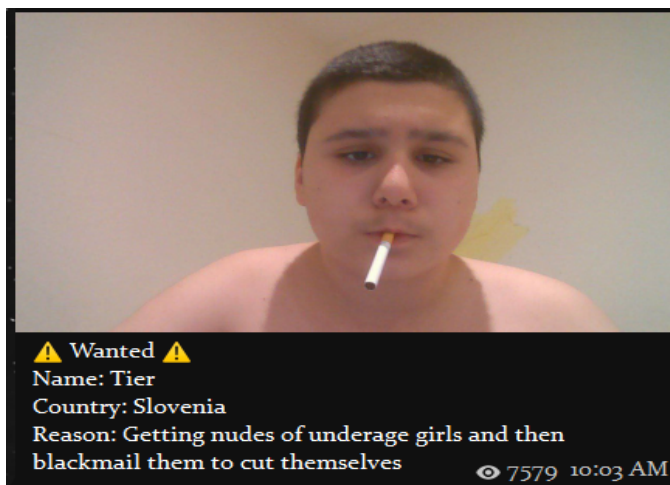

Over time, this culminated into a deep admiration, which led to some major skepticism among the other admins and close friends due to the suspicion that the child trafficking group, Eternal Reich would stage a coup to destroy it, from within. Deja Red of course, ignored these warning signs and doubled down. This eventually turned into a campaign of slander and libel against her Veteran members, who were loyal to her since the start. After this smear campaign was carried out, she decided to form an alliance with Eternal Reich - claiming - "she never had anything against them", and "would like to make peace with Tier."

As this insanity further progressed, she permitted known Kurdish child predator "Heinrich" to be welcomed back in the room no questions asked. Him and Deja seemingly have no issues with each other despite Heinrich's evident history of glorying child r#pe. Going on, Deja Red banned every last one of her original admins on the orders of Eternal Reich themselves. Her new admins are either E.R admins, so called O9A affiliates or both of the above.

In the present, Deja routinely speaks of brutally and sadistically executing her former members for "betrayal", "race mixing", or other strange, incomprehensible accusations. It is highly advised anyone stays away from @MysticaAngelorum and DateNightBeauty at all times.

Tier has been first exposed by the anti crime action (Now Dark Justice Collective). Albanian Blackshirts, and Wignats Pedophiles Exposed (Now Wignats Pedophiles Unmasked). Injekt Division and Lolcow Enthusiast were the ones who exposed him even further.

Tier has been first exposed by the anti crime action (Now Dark Justice Collective). Albanian Blackshirts, and Wignats Pedophiles Exposed (Now Wignats Pedophiles Unmasked). Injekt Division and Lolcow Enthusiast were the ones who exposed him even further.

The Downfall of Tier

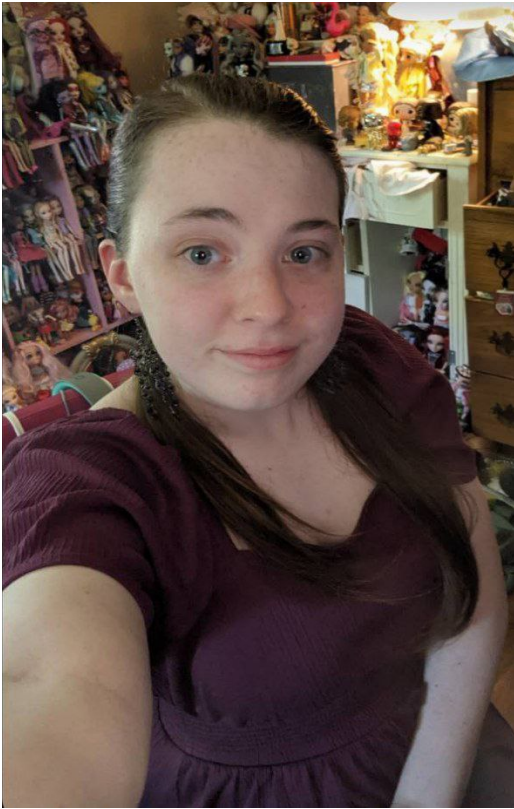

-December: Alexander Gasparyan, known as "Tier", was exposed as a pedophile attempting to blackmail a 12-year-old. Despite denying the allegations, overwhelming evidence supported the claims, leading Tier to ultimately confess. In a vindictive move, he sought to retaliate against those exposing him.

- January: Tier made a sudden attempt to salvage his reputation by claiming to have changed his ways and expressing remorse for his past behavior. He attributed his actions to being groomed and vowed to never repeat them. This occurred around the time he released an apology video.

-February: Following the release of an apology video in January. He made the most SHOCKING and DISGUSTING thing ever. Tier out of nowhere decided to start video calls from different groups Dancing naked, masturbating, and even showing off drinking piss He even send pictures of his penis to different groups harrasing people and making fun of them. According to Tier. In his defence he stated that it was ok since it was just him having fun.

-March: Tier renounced his apology, saying it was AI, and reverted to his previous behavior. Reports indicate his association with parasites involved in pedogrooming activities.

“You're not German, Alicia. You're not fucking German. You're not Aryan. You're not German enough. Because you fucking allow all this disgusting, grotesque shit in your groups. That's not the actions of an Aryan. That is the actions of a fucking lowlife. Or a degenerate. A non-Aryan motherfucker. Because being Aryan is not just in your blood. It's in your actions. It's in your behavior. And it's in your fucking spirit. And you don't got any of that shit, bitch. You're not a German. You're not Aryan. You're more than likely a fucking guy for all I fucking know. So go ahead. Keep ranting and raving. Keep fucking bitching, moaning, and complaining about me. Because, oh, I'm getting a quote-unquote spick when his DNA test results show that he's not even a fucking spick. Which is retarded. Like, personally, I don't even know where the fuck that came from. Oh, calling my boyfriend a spic or whatever the fuck. He's not a spic. Okay, yeah, I get it. He's kind of an asshat sometimes. But, I mean, he's not a fucking spic. And that does not give you the fucking right to allow someone to say, I wanna dissect and cannibalize Johnny because, mmm. Like, seriously. Have some fucking morals. Miss, oh, I'm, oh, I fucking basically preach the Bible 24 goddamn 7. LARP. That's what you are. You're a fucking LARP.”

- Melissa Gullinellsky

“Left the aryan dating because Deja was not even able to help me find a pair and she's always been saying she's gonna work on it. Its all filled with drama especially now she is collaborating with pedophiles”

- Vinlandian

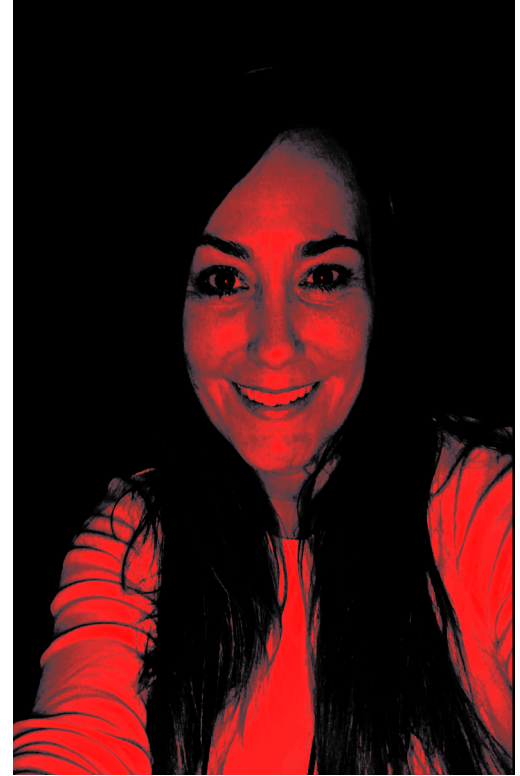

TRANSITIONING INTO A HORRORCOW

“She harbours well-known pedophiles like “Alexander Gasparyan” (Exposed for coercing a 12-year-old into cutting themselves.) or Heinrich (Openly pedo and spams cp) the most disturbing part about this is she outright justifies everything under the grounds of “Christianity” and “Forgiveness”. But in reality it is just her thinking they are an asset to benefit from.”

I think this is the part where Alisha turns from a lolcow to a horrorcow. At the very least despite of her or her retarded friends Melissa or Vin. She still has some friends or someone to talk to. Friends that truly love her and look after her.

However Boobieboy (Alexander Gasparyan) a child predator from Slovenia was able to fiddle with Alisha's feelings by flattering her with a show of fake hospitality. Instances like claiming he will personally come to her enemy's house and beat them up. Or leaking the images of Lin's nudes.

Lin was allegedly “Alex's girlfriend”. Lin sent Alex a series of her nudes. Instances where she severe her bumhole with a knife while having a pink hairbrush stuck up her vagina.

Now I do not know how to emphasize this to begin with. Lin is dating a 14 year-old but at the same time. This 14-year-old made a series of blackmail/coercion in getting kids to cut themselves. Instances of him coercing a 12-year-old into cutting or threatening to leak her nudes. Instances of him praising pedophiles, or expressing pedophilia remarks. Instances of him going group after group spamming morbid things like gores, animal abuse, or flashing his genitals.

Now basically Alisha thinks she has a new lapdog who will do everything for her. But little does she know. She is slowly stripping everyone who truly cares about her replacing them with satanic pedophiles who wish nothing but to completely destroy her community.

Right now her community is being flooded with gores and posting satanic and O9A imagery.

Alisha kept Alex in her group under the reasoning of “We are Catholics we learn to forgive”. That's the stupidest reason out of the things Alex has done and is still is occurring. Alex was given multiple chances to change. Yet look where he is now.

And despite this, if the teachings of forgiving are what Alisha is using as an outright justification. How come these people are posting gores, hailing satan, or insulting Christianity or God yet no actions are being done by Alisha?

Boobieboy was successfully able to pull Alisha's heartstring. What Alisha did was, she kicked out everyone of her friends and replaced them with pedophiles. She went after Melissa encouraging her to kill herself. Numbers of coercion and bombardment of death threats are being thrown off to Melissa at the moment.

Now I know for a fact Melissa is handicapped in some way. But to compare her with Alisha. Alisha is 100x worse for certain.

Alisha's goal was to use these people as a way of attacking her enemies. She does not care if they are pedophiles or satanist. Or if they bombard her social platform with gore and satanic imagery. What matters is she gets what she wants. As long as her ego or her pride or her ways of thinking that these pedophiles are actually helping her to the extent against her enemies. She will do whatever she can to protect them.

Catholic turned satanist overnight. That is something you do not see once in a while.

WHAT IS LEFT?

Since deja red's choice of collaborating with pedophiles thinking she will benefit from them. Basically using them to do things for her. In exchange of stripping off her longest friends, giving everything she has of her community. Everything is just headed for her the worse.

With her friends gone she really has no one to depend into. Everything else is gone. She is being investigated and reported to the police. Hopefully justice can be done.

Right now we can only wait for Alisha's final nail to the coffin. These pedophiles do not care about Alisha. Everything that's been said to her are bullshit stories to inflate her ego. Her numbers of fedposting, death threats, coercing people to kill themselves would not be tolerated.

When the worse of things happen. She will have no one to depend to. No friends, no religion, no God.

Just the gates of hell waiting.
