Skittles, aka @Pony Art Express and @T.B. has been grooming minors and displaying predatory behavior for years. My PSA is 1% of the iceberg. This document covers all of his wrongdoings, and is still being updated.

Skittles is a 31 year old while the victim in these screenshots were 17 at the time. Skittles like to insist he is not a "weirdo" yet, he continuously pushes boundaries and brings up adult topics. He goes as far as saying he will have "some questions for you when you turn 18".

He is attempting to scam every featured artist who leaves the Pony Art Express discord server. Because they leave, the art is useless to him. Therefore, they should refund the entire amount paid despite previous discussion. He also pressures them into removing signatures.

good luck with everything, I wish u the best

I wish you gl too, I am just really tired of all the things happened

Skittles! ART! 6:54 PM
who will u ever find throwing hundreds to other people in giveaways to promote artists? commissioning art meant to let the artist express themselves and have fun? nobody. i got relentlessly harassed. and im always punished for it in the end.

6:55 PM

1) This was the image sent and approved for shipping

2) has black splatters that were not present before shipment. seller admitted to changing product

Seller threatened to (and did) go public if I didn't back down from refund request.

u wont hear about how much extra I tipped, and how long and respectively I've been waiting for this art. Delays and excuses over and over. I can never have any support from anyone, and it's why I lose my mind.

I gave thousands away in tips alone. These people were my friends.

And also, if u leave the server im going to request a refund. Part of the deal was joining the server and maintaining that position.

You forget that was part of our agreement.

@ Skittles! ART! And also, if u leave the server im going to request a refund. Part of the deal was joining the server and maintaining that position.

wdym? I give the stickers for you already please quote that agreement for me

Skittles! ART! 6:58 PM
the agreement was to make stickers and join the server as a featured artist. pony art express it was the agreement every artist rolled with. why do u think even ones I had issues with never left?
that was the agreement. I sponsor ur work and pay you for emojis, and u joined the server to make an ad-channel.
u broke that part of the deal. now these emojis are meaningless to me. they're just ur work without any benefit for me.
it's unbelievable to me how selfish people can be. Im over here giving u guys money to have fun and make what you want for the most part.
and im punished for being unhappy after having a poor customer experience and being delaying since novemeber on a commission over $1000 total. still havent gotten dino's emojis nor personal request. more of the fun stuff left out to slander me.
u can leave the server, but the does mean I want my money back. It's wrong to do that to me after taking it.

As... I am beginner really, and not so famous, tho I do think it is a bit low now, maybe I should price up a little soon, after I finish some other stuff

Shittteal ARTIST 2/3/26, 5:52 PM

If I was hiring you, I'd question that

You should not market yourself as a beginner artist like that, not when ur art looks this good cause if I was an asshole I'd be ready to rip u off at $5 an emoji

2/3/26, 5:54 PM

Hmm... I will check other artists prices to balance it soon, tho I don't think I am good like them

Shittteal ARTIST 2/3/26, 5:54 PM

I'll meet u halfway. let's do $10.

never sell yourself short.

the avg price I've paid for emojis per is usually $10-$25 it does depend on the artists renown and queue times, you're right! but if you offer $5 for that quality, the buyer may think it's going to look worse, or you're not confident, etc.

just a perspective maybe you haven't considered. same when hiring people. I'd rather take the guy that has some confidence to backup the amount they want, over the guy that says "yeah im cool with that amount".

2/3/26, 5:59 PM

So the only thing here is that my offer is a bit different than most commissions

it's actually agreement on terms that usually aren't required

- I may use the artwork for portfolio purposes with a heavy watermark applied. -that's fine, as long as it's after it's been added to server
- The pony belongs to you; however, please keep my watermark/credit if you share or edit the artwork. -I don't want to commission art with a watermark
- Do not use my artwork for AI training. -got it
- All artworks are SFW and for personal use only. -swf server no problem
- Do not resell my artwork(s). -never would, and if someone ever wants to sell merch of art someone else commissioned, you need to ask commissioner too. When you sell artwork, unless the commissioner is purchasing the right to fully own the artwork, it's 50/50 ownership (add read)

with this commission, im looking to control the rights to the art being posted, basically just wait until after emojis are added to server to post. it's helpful if u follow and tag twitter/discord invite link with ur artwork when u post, but that is entirely up to you, as is activity in server

So,

For the watermark, I mean a little signature next to the stickers, like in the stickers examples, I put a small @zamiverse.art in there

And commissioner will have the right to use the artwork as long as it is personal use, which I considered discord server stickers are personal use, just don't earn any money from my artwork
I may apply a heavy watermark to artworks only when posting them publicly as commissioned works.
This watermark is for portfolio and credit purposes only and will not be applied to the files delivered to the commissioner, as I do not wish to affect the commissioner's usage rights.

Shitties! ART! 2/3/26, 6:36 PM

yea I dont want a signature tbh think the only things in there with a signature for emoji were the gifs I asked Sion if I could use if it was artwork, I'd understand, but emoji with signature? kinda odd, no? (edited) could always put them all together and a version watermarked for u to post and stuff

/3/26, 6:41 PM

As you know, users with Discord Nitro or Nitro Basic can use emojis in other servers as well.

Because of this, it can be risky to remove my signature entirely.

I understand that you prefer not to have a sign, I can make it much smaller, it will only be visible on the full artwork, and not noticeable when used as a emoji (edited)

not if u have the post of all the emojis together with ur watermark then thats ur proof its urs. emojis gonna get stolen, they already have been

i can't police that, its impossible

2/3/26, 6:47 PM

I don't mean you need to police, that is impossible! I surely understand that!

Would you okay if I posted to my social media (with heavy watermark) first, then you can add those to the server with proper credit, I can accept no visible sign in this case (edited)

Shitties! ART! 2/3/26, 6:48 PM

That's what I was getting at yea

if u want advice, yeah dont stress a lot on a signature for an emoji. artwork? different, understandable, can hide them pretty well. but i dont think a single emoji out of 400+ has a signature on it

2/3/26, 6:49 PM

I may be confused by this sentence you made, as social media is my portfolio

I may use the artwork for portfolio purposes with a heavy watermark applied. -that's fine, as long as it's after it's been added to server

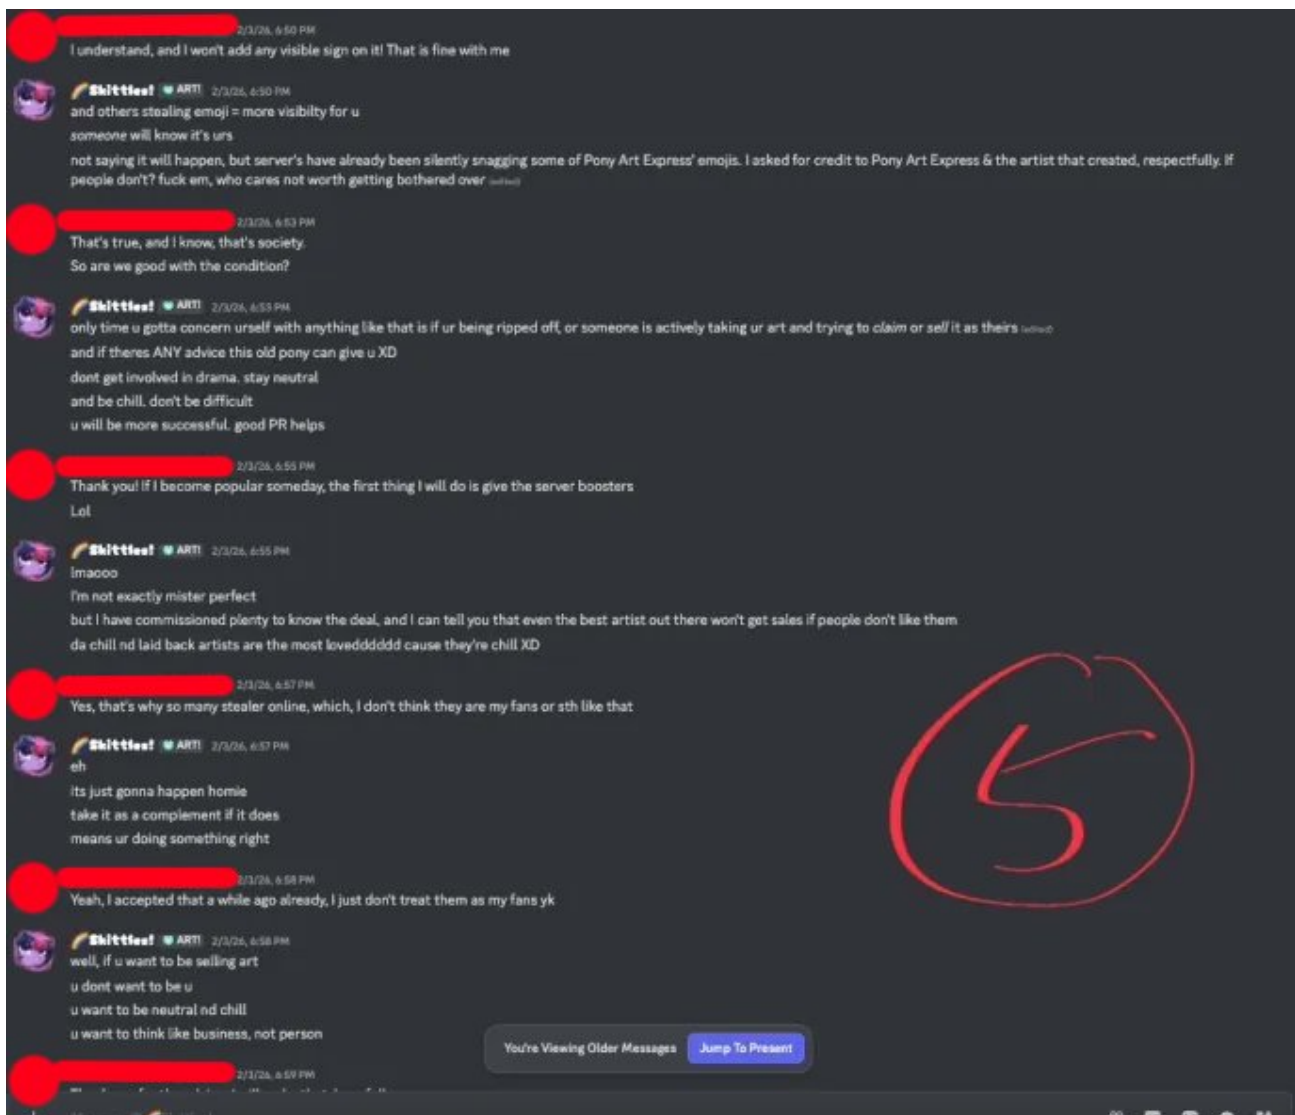

Shitties! ART! 2/3/26, 6:49 PM

I just dont want a signature in the actual file I'd upload to server that would look odd if u want to post first all watermarked, thats fine I'll meet u in the middle at end of day, u get ur money, so all is good

There is no original agreement that he sent where it states the refund condition that he's weaponizing. He is even using me as some weird leverage in his DMS with others, like how he exposes his other wrong doings himself. He digs holes for himself while everyone knows the truth.

The terms with commissioning emojis was made clear; I pay for emojis and give them creative freedom - They in return, joined the server as a featured artist and made an ad-channel

I simply told [REDACTED] if they choose to leave, they may do so. But it does violate our original agreement.

I've spent a lot of money on a lot of people here. Not selfish commissions.

You are all out of your mind for telling me I should roll over and accept being treated like garbage, strung along and delayed for months on a commission totaled to $1500, and I still have not recived 2/3 of the work. and the canvas arrives with terrible black splotches that completely ruin the pic? everyone I've shown it to irl, that's all they point out. I commissioned Dino in November. $1500 total. They go public after trying to emotionally manipulate me.

I never even made a refund request. Last DM was "How do we fix this?"

then they go public and bash me thennnn they go on the "ship it back" nonsense u realize I am now being skewered an art scammer, after spending over $20,000? I never had any issues until after I was lied about and exiled everywhere. Now when the project finally launches, I deal with scumbag artist moves that are costing me the rest of whatever I had left.

but thats why im going. nobody wants me here, I was backstabbed and cutoff from artists I threw hundreds/thousands to, and effectively exiled and silenced all over the fandom. harassed to this day look im not saying you are scamming but your behaviour is sicken me, especially

Skittles! ART! 9:46 AM

i've been being stalked and harassed for a year now and when I was framed, nobody was there to help me.

He flexed his "$20k" in spending, meanwhile it was just 5k. He lost his job recently, where does the money come from? I don't have screenshots anymore because he deleted all DMs, but he insisted $1500+, tips included, upfront over and over and struggled to pay for

1-2 hours.

His "final" message before he came back just to ruin himself in his own server.

Vagueposting his wrong doings as if he didn't do it. His server fluctuates between moving on and actually caring that a predator is server owner.

Minmunnn 5:02 PM

What are you doing now to correct any of it then

fishie 5:02 PM

its good you regret it but it still happened

Skittles! ART! 5:02 PM

what can I do?

I dont rp, erp, and im exiled

fishie 5:03 PM

like you cant just say sorry and blame it on your medical issues

Skittles! ART! 5:03 PM

and whenever im living and minding my own, these assholes come back nd do this lmao like how can u move on

Minmunnn 5:03 PM

Stop calling yourself a victim while actively harming others ?

Skittles! ART! 5:03 PM

this was september

Beemo BERK 5:03 PM

Saying exiled like you've been exiled from a clan in warrior cats

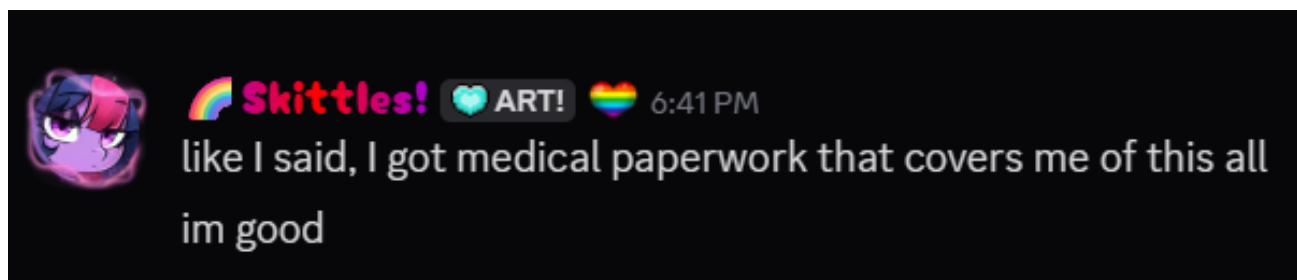

Skittles! ART! 5:03 PM

okay so how can I move on Honestly, sums up my post.

Excusing his behavior with his meds and mental illness.

Just to keep it short, he has been reported to the FBI in the past for his previous behavior. Tweet on that coming soon. This is why he keeps vagueposting about "4 charges".

Overall, just ship my art back @Pony Art Express. I'll refund you and pay for shipping. There's other people who would appreciate it more. There's not much you can even argue against here, its all in 4k.
